THANKSGIVING POTLUCK

For many years, Roncalli Newman Parish has celebrated Thanksgiving a week in advance with its student population. The “mother of all potlucks” is preceded by prayer in the chapel. We hope that BSP parishioners will attend this annual event on Thursday, November 17th. The thanksgiving prayer begins in the chapel at 5:30 PM, with the potluck to follow (in the lower level).

UPCOMING HOLY DAY MASS SCHEDULES

- For the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st, there will be a Vigil Mass at Blessed Sacrament at 5:30 on October 31st and three Masses on November 1st: 8:00 AM @ BSP, Noon @ RNP, and 5:15 @ RNP.
- For the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception on December 8th, there will be a Vigil Mass at Blessed Sacrament at 5:30 on December 7th and three Masses on December 8th: 8:00 AM @ BSP, Noon @ RNP, and 7:00 PM @ RNP.
- For the Solemnity of the Nativity of Our Lord (Christmas), there will be three Masses on Christmas Eve and two on Christmas Day:
  - o Christmas Eve: 4:00 PM @ Blessed Sacrament; 6:00 PM Family Mass @ Roncalli Newman; and 8:00 PM Candlelight Mass @ Roncalli Newman
  - o Christmas Day: 9:00 AM @ Blessed Sacrament and 11:15 AM @ Roncalli Newman

ANSWERS to QUESTIONS REGARDING MUSIC MINISTRY

Many Blessed Sacrament parishioners have sent questions that keep reappearing, motivating me to answer them in the bulletin for the sake of wider distribution.

WHY DON'T WE USE THE ORGAN?

The simple answer to that is that I'm a pianist without training on the organ. Despite that handicap, I hired Hendrickson Organ Company to service and tune the organ about a month ago because I want the instrument to be played and heard. I hired local organist Randy Lyden to play twice a month and am pleased to say that Pauline Connell continues to play for weddings and funerals. She is scheduled to play for Saturday night Mass on Saturday, November 12th @ 4:30 PM and again on Christmas Eve at the 4:00 PM Mass. Finally, Mary Blaha-DeBoer grew up playing the organ for her home church in Ettrick and will, undoubtedly, play it when she assumes the post of Director of Music on December 1st.

WHY DON'T WE SING MARIAN HYMNS DURING THE MONTHS OF OCTOBER and MAY?

It would be appropriate to sing Marian hymns as a prelude or as part of a service devoted to Mary, but not during Mass on the Lord's Day. The Church states that music for Mass be all about the passion, resurrection, and glorification of Jesus Christ. “Other celebrations, unless they be truly of greatest importance, shall not have precedence over the Sunday which is the foundation and kernel of the whole liturgical year” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, no. 106). The exceptions to this are the Solemnities of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven and the Immaculate Conception of Mary.

WHY DON'T YOU USE MORE TRADITIONAL HYMNS?

I'm not sure what “traditional hymns” means other than more “familiar hymns.” The music chosen for Sunday Mass is mainstream Catholic music from GIA Publications, Oregon Catholic Press, and J.S. Paluch (who purchased World Library Publications). The music we sing on Sunday isn't “new age,” but in the common repertory of parishes across the United States. If music is unfamiliar to Blessed Sacrament parishes, you can expect to repeat it on subsequent Sundays. I'm also hoping that the Newman parishioners (who are attending Blessed Sacrament) can help support the singing.

Pastoral Notes

From the desk of Fr. Billy Dodge

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Let's talk about the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Here is an excerpt from the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults:

“In the Church's Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. His cures were signs of the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The core message of his healing tells us of his plan to conquer sin and death by his dying and rising.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient.

When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age.”

Some additional information of when to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick - if you are going in for surgery that requires general anesthesia, then you should consider receiving the Anointing.

The ideal way to receive the Anointing is to ask Father Sam or I immediately Mass. We will take you to the Sacristy (i.e. the room where we get vested for Mass) or somewhere else in the Church to administer the sacrament. At one point in the Anointing the priest lays his hands over the person to pray for strength and healing. The priest often encourages family, friends, and parishioners to reach out and pray simultaneously for the person.

If you have any questions or concerns let us know.

God bless,
Father Billy Dodge

The Rosary, A Spiritual Weapon for Families

FROM VOW 'TIL NOW BY DENNIS AND MARY JO WEISS

As a parent, one of the things I am called to do is sacrifice for my children. It just comes with the job. That sacrifice can take on many forms. It may be financial, that is the material things we forgo in order to provide for our family. It may be giving up some time commitments to outside activities you personally enjoy in order to create more time to spend with your family and children. It may be as simple and basic as attending to the physical needs of your little ones, who are so totally dependent on their parents, especially throughout those early years. Or it could be of a spiritual nature, that is, praying for the needs and wellbeing of your loved ones.

Those who do have children will certainly find themselves sacrificing in all these various ways at one time or another in their lives. But I would like to focus for a moment on the spiritual sacrifice, which we are called to undertake on behalf of our children. In particular, let's consider one of the most powerful weapons that we have in our arsenal to fight our spiritual battles, that is, the Rosary.

First, I will admit right up front that I have personally struggled with the Rosary for much of my life. I recall times when I was in high school when I would walk into my parent's living room and both of them would be sitting there with rosary beads in hand. I remember wondering what they saw in this form of prayer, one that I thought was repetitive and boring. And how did they have time to say a whole Rosary, especially all fifteen decades as I know my mom did each day? Surely God did not really need that much of our time when we could just simply tell Him our needs and add in an Our Father and Hail Mary or two. Wasn't that enough?

I remember many years later talking to my mom and asking her what was she praying for when she said all of those rosaries. Her answer was "mostly for you boys." You see, I am one of four brothers and believe me, we all did more than our share of stupid things to drive our parents crazy when we were young, especially during our high school and college years. While I think that we all turned out okay in the end, in reflecting back, I am certain that in a large part this was mainly due to all of the prayers and rosaries said by our faithful mom and dad.

Remastered Mary and Jesus by Mary Ann Roesler

Even as an adult I still struggle with praying the Rosary. At times, especially in the evening when I am tired, to say the Rosary can seem like such a chore. I find my mind wandering off to those things which I didn't get done that day, or to what I need to do the next day. It can be a real struggle to bring my focus back to the words of the Our Fathers and Hail Marys, and to reflect on the meaning of the mystery in hand.

But as in all battles, it helps to have a fellow warrior "in the trench alongside you," especially when you are in the midst of any spiritual warfare. Someone who "has your back." That is why I have found great comfort in having my comrade in arms, Mary Jo, beside me to say the Rosary together.

For some time now, we have committed to trying to say a Rosary together every day, and just like my own parents, we have found ourselves asking for divine intercession in the lives of our children, among our many other petitions. We have had our share of answered prayers, both those that we recognize and those answers that may have come in ways not yet clear to us. For that we are grateful to Our Lady for her intercession.

There are times when we are both tired at night and may substitute the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (much shorter) for our daily Rosary. At other times we have changed up our prayer routine to do a novena to a particular saint, one who we feel called to specifically intercede in a certain situation. But mainly, we find ourselves going back to Mary, our Mother, and her Rosary.

The other day, for some reason we were talking about "Excalibur," the legendary sword of King Arthur in the Knights of the Roundtable. I do not even recall why this came up, but that evening as we were heading to our back room to say our Rosary, Mary Jo held up her hand grasping her rosary and said, "Here is my Excalibur." It struck me just how appropriate that comparison was. The Rosary is our sword to combat all the tricks the devil may use to draw us away from God. It is indeed our most powerful spiritual weapon.

I was reading an insert in our parish's bulletin from last week and since it was the feast day of St. Dominic on August 8th, it listed the fifteen promises which Our Lady gave to him regarding those who pray the Rosary. They are quite remarkable and reassuring. Among them are: "The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell... and you shall obtain all you ask of me by recitation of the Rosary."

Why not take Our Lady's word and use this weapon to combat the evil one?

Catholic Boy Scout Emblems

Calling all Boy Scouts interested in earning their Religious Emblems: Ad Altare Dei and Pope Pius XII. If your unit does not offer classes and you want information on classes please contact Cindy at catholicreligiousemblems@gmail.com. or call 608-783-4911.

Healthy Living with Diabetes Class

"Healthy Living with Diabetes class to be offered in Nov/Dec through Gundersen Health System virtually. For more information, please contact Vicky at 608-775-6870.

Lectio: The Case for Jesus

Many people today refer to Jesus as just a prophet and not as the divine Son of God. This week Brant Pitre answers the question "Did Jesus Claim to Be God?". We look at three New Testament passages: the Healing of the Paralytic (Mark 2:1-12), Jesus Walking on Water (Mark 6:45-52), and the Transfiguration (Mark 9:2-7) as passages that show Jesus's revelation of His divinity and His disciples' understanding that Jesus is the one true God.

All are welcome to join us for class or watch the video online on the Formed.org website. Need help getting onto Formed.org? Contact Amy at amy_capelli@charter.net or 608-783-0847

Each week there are 5 class offerings. Join us for the class that best fits your schedule.
