Chalice of Mercy is a non-profit organization founded in 2007 by Valentyna Pavsyukova, a native of Ukraine.

With donations and funds raised in the United States, Chalice of Mercy has been able to open a daycare, provide free surgeries, and minister to Ukrainians who are suffering and often forgotten.

Now, the need is immediate and severe.

The war Vladimir Putin is waging on Ukraine is tearing apart families and forcing people from their homes. Many civilians are escaping to neighboring countries, but many more are not able to flee.

Babies are being born in basements, hospitals are trying to work without necessary supplies, and soldiers are sleeping on the cold ground with nothing but the clothes they are wearing.

Because of Valentyna's connection with Ukraine and the people still there, she has direct knowledge of the things that are most needed. She is skilled and experienced in coordinating funds and shipments internationally.

Through Chalice of Mercy, you can be sure that 100% of your money will go to the people who need it most.
