FROM THE DESK OF FR. BILLY DODGE

First, a reminder to be aware of scammers pretending to be me asking parishioners for financial assistance. They comb through past bulletins or the parish website looking for parishioner emails and phone numbers. If you ever get such a request and are not sure if it is me please call the parish offices.

Second, a special thank you to parishioners who helped put together Mary Ellen's retirement party. It was a great celebration of her 25 years of service. Mary Ellen will continue in her role of director of liturgy through September.

Third, now that summer vacation is over, our Mass attendance will increase. Please make room in your pew, especially at the 11am Mass, to make newcomers feel welcome.

MUSIC & LITURGY: FROM THE DESK OF MARY ELLEN HAUPERT

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Thank you to Sheila Momont, Mary Blaha-DeBoer, and Carol Mader for planning my retirement party last Sunday. Thanks to all the parishioners who shared salads and kind words. Thanks to the MANY HANDS who helped clean up when the event was over. Special thanks to Sheila, Mary, Peg Manson, my husband and children for their well-prepared, light-hearted, and sincere talks. They are posted on Mary Ellen's staff page on the Roncalli Newman website: www.roncallinewman-center.com/mary-ellen-hauptert-director-of-music-and-liturgy

Excerpt from Retirement Speech - August 20, 2023

Even though I have always loved church, I had several reasons why I never wanted to work for a church:

1. I didn't want to be tied down every weekend.
2. I had never studied the organ because I didn't think I'd ever need the skill.
3. I had never taken a course in sacred scripture or liturgy and most of the bible studies that I tried in college were narrowly focused. At a time when I was searching for deeper meaning, I found that these groups seemed to be making it up as they went along...and I had better things to do.
4. I didn't find the music very challenging. Even though I was part of a small group of musicians who supplied music every weekend at the Newman Center at Wash U, I didn't want to plan, prepare, and play that music exclusively.
5. All the church music directors that I knew were rather odd, and I didn't want to be one of them.

What was going through my head when Tom Walter called and said, "We are looking for a Director of Music at the Newman Center. Do you know anyone who might be interested?" After submitting an application, I remember Fr. Mark asking me if I really wanted the job. I could only answer that "I had an inexplicable feeling in my gut that it was the right thing to do," and who says "no" to the Holy Spirit?

What I learned was that...

1. I enjoyed playing for Mass and didn't mind the Saturday/Sunday work schedule.
2. I was no longer afraid of the organ.
3. I worked on a Masters in Theology at St. Mary's University for three years – taking courses focused on liturgy, ecclesiology, theology, spirituality, and scripture, to name a few. The Diocesan School of Biblical Studies was another avenue of growth for me.
4. The music in my fingers seemed to beckon for more, and before I knew it, I was improvising for the first time in my life; I also exercised arranging and conducting skills which would have gone unused in my teaching job; and I have loved working with Liturgy Committee on Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time liturgies.
5. As for church music directors being odd... They are odd because they love their assemblies and the music ministers who either participate for a time, or stick it out indefinitely. Yes, I have been happily odd for 25 years because knowing all of you has been one of my greatest joys.

A Minute with Jesus in light of the Eucharistic Revival - a movement to help all Catholics know and believe that the Eucharist is Jesus. At Mass, the Scripture Readings prepare us to receive Jesus. There are two major parts to the Mass: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. In the Liturgy of the Word, we listen to three Readings and a Psalm from Sacred Scripture (the Bible). These Readings help us recall all that God has done for us: His love and His plan for us. We stand up for the third Reading – the Gospel, the most important Reading – because Matthew, Mark, Luke and John deliver the message that Jesus brings, and include quotations of His very own spoken words. After the Gospel, the priest or deacon helps us to understand these Readings from the Bible and how to apply the message to our daily life in order to be a more faithful follower of the Lord. Hearing the Words of Scripture and the Homily which follows helps our hearts to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week:
Jesus, help me to come to Mass with an open heart, ready to hear the Readings from Scripture and the Homily in order to know You better.

This week, read from the Letter of Paul to Timothy about the importance of God's Word: "All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, correction and training in righteousness, so that the man (or woman) of God may be fully competent and equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

During this 2nd year of the Eucharistic Revival, we are offering the Bible study Lectio Eucharist which begins the week of September 17. This is an opportunity to increase your understanding of the Eucharist and Mass. One person explained the class by saying, "Before I took the class it was as if I had my eyes closed whenever I went to Mass. After taking Lectio Eucharist my eyes are wide open and I see and understand things I never did before! I wish everyone would take advantage of this opportunity and could experience the same thing." Check bulletin boards and the main entrance of church for flyers. Have you already taken this course? Take it again but this time, bring a friend to join you! Let's help evangelize those around us and make the real presence known to all! Cost to register is $15 for those who need a workbook. Those who already have a workbook are free! Registration will be available after all masses next weekend.

Discovering the Eucharist in the Old & New Testaments

Join us for an in depth look at where the Eucharist is found throughout the pages of the Bible.
