About the Author

Dr. Edward Sri is a theologian, international lecturer and author of several bestselling books, such as A Biblical Walk Through of the Mass - Understanding What We Say and Do in the Liturgy. He is the host of several video formation series, including Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained.

He is one of the founders, together with Curtis Martin, of FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students), associate professor at the Augustine Institute and Vice President of Formation for FOCUS. For more information visit www.edwardsri.com.

How do we talk about morality in a world that no longer believes in truth? What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality – that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Many good people feel afraid to say anything is right or wrong anymore.

This program gives us an important key to responding to these difficult questions – a Catholic moral world view. Learn how Catholic morality is all about love, how making a judgment is not judging a person's soul, and how, in the words of Pope Francis, "relativism wounds people" and is "the spiritual poverty of our times."

- This program gives Catholics
- greater confidence in God's moral law,
 - greater clarity in how to explain it effectively to our friends,
 - and greater compassion for those with whom we disagree.

Everyone is invited to join us.

In order to make this 9 week program more accessible, this class will be offered in multiple parishes. Each week you can go to the class that best fits your schedule.
